BUSES UNDER FIRE AGAIN

A letter complaining of over crowding on the Altona-Footscray buses during the evening peak hours was presented to the Altona Shire Council at their last meeting.

The letter presented by Cr. H. W. Lee on behalf of a resident is to be forwarded to the Transport Regulation Board.

The complainant stated the buses were so over crowded with passengers, that as the bus travelled along some were hanging out of the doorway. He said he was afraid of an accident—somebody could very well fall under a wheel.

passengers are entitled to some measure of comfort. If this over crowding continues people will revert to private transport—away from public transport which the council is working so hard to have improved.

The letter will be forwarded to the Board with a request for an inspector to police this matter.

NEW SHIRE BUILDINGS

There were numerous applicants for the positions of hall keeper and cleaners for the new offices.

Of these six local applicants the hall keeper and four local ladies for the cleaners will be interviewed for the positions.

The newly formed shire offices staff social committee has been granted occupancy of the new hall for lunch time break recreational and club purposes.

ANOTHER LEVEL CROSSING ACCIDENT

At 7 p.m. last Saturday a passenger train travelling from Laverton to Melbourne struck a car at the Maidstone Street level crossing.

The car, a Holden station wagon, was driven by John Noblett, of 68 Maidstone St., Altona.

The train struck the front of the car and pulled it into the side of the train.

The driver escaped with a cut head and bruised back and legs.

Floodwaters Isolate Altona EXTENSIVE DAMAGE TO ESPLANADE HOMES

The inundation by sea water of houses along the Esplanade early last Saturday morning was the worst flooding ever experienced by these residents. A combination of a very high tide and gale force winds caused the sea to come completely over the sea wall and flow half way up the side streets to Queen Street. The water left a trail of seaweed and debris up these streets and surrounding houses.

The seawall opposite the end of Sargood Street was breached and the nearby electric light pole supporting the beach floodlight slid into the water. The noise of flapping iron woke Miss G. Luly at 5 a.m., who on investigating was dismayed to find herself surrounded by sea water.

She proceeded to wake nearby residents and warn them. To keep her footing as she moved along against the thrashing sea, Miss Luly had to hold on to fences of houses.

She woke Mrs. W. Inglis who stepped from her bed into water. By the time she woke several other residents lights were beginning to appear in houses and more people were stepping from their beds into water. A number of residents had to be evacuated.

Miss Luly said the sea was so high that the usual noise of the waves breaking on the sea wall was absent, the sea was flowing straight over the top of it.

Among the residents to have the sea water through their homes were Messrs. Dolman, Barber, Harris, Syme, Hanni-

Unfortunately when the water subsided many of the properties were below foot-path level and water could not flow away. Pumps were set up on Saturday afternoon and it took several days to clear the water.

After the sea had abated numerous boats were found along the Esplanade. Some were floating, but others were smashed to pieces. Boats and wreckage were swept on to vacant lots and into driveways of houses.

Many boats anchored at Seaholme were lost. One owner found his boat buried under seaweed. Another was noticed standing in the sea next to his boat—it had sunken and only the gunwhale was visible.

For some time now there have been complaints of lack of sand on Altona beaches. On Saturday morning there was plenty of sand, but unfortunately it was on the road, not on the beach. The western end of the Esplanade could not be seen for sand. The beach was covered with a thick layer of seaweed.

Stones were strewn over the road, particularly the eastern end of the Esplanade. The gravel which formed the path along the sea wall near the pier was washed all over the road—the path had gone. Tree guards were uprooted, twisted and thrown onto the opposite side of the road. The tree-planting scheme for the foreshore has received a severe set-back.

Fences were torn down. A huge tree on Logan Reserve was blown down. The iron fence on the beach side of the reserve was twisted and torn. Rubbish tins were torn from their posts and tossed around.

In fact, it seems all property fronting the Esplanade suffered in some way as a result of the storm.

Safety Presentation at Refinery to Schools

A presentation of library books and mathematical aids was made to head masters of two local schools last week (July 11) at the Altona Refinery following the reaching of 200 accident-free working days by company employees.

Male and female staff gathered in the canteen, applauded warmly as Mr. A. Blackie, head master of Seaholme Primary School, and Mr. G. H. L. Treyvaud, head master of Altona Primary School, received the gifts.

In a brief informal ceremony Mr. William H. Hesketh, general manager, congratulated the employees on their achievement, and urged them to continue their efforts.

A worthy example, he said, had been set by an oil company at Durban, South Africa, whose employees had recently attained a three-year accident-free record.

He was confident Altona workers could equal or better this performance.

Mr. Hesketh said that it was appropriate that two of the company's staff should present the gifts, and invited Mr. E.

Bertram, a process operator and member of the Altona Primary School Council, and Mr. Harry Trieb, a fitter and member of the Seaholme Primary School Council, to perform the task.

In expressing their thanks for the donations, both head masters stressed the need for increased educational facilities, and said that the books and mathematical aids would do much to implement their present facilities.

NO TRAINS FOR TWO DAYS

After heavy rains Altona residents have come to expect Millers Road to be cut off by the flood waters of the Kororoit Creek. Now it seems it is to be the usual thing for the railway line near Seaholme to be also flooded.

Following the rain last Friday and Saturday residents were seriously inconvenienced by the flooding of the road and railway line. Trains stopped running at 6.30 p.m. on Saturday evening and the service did not resume until 11.30 p.m. on Monday night.

During this time the railways department ran a bus service between Altona and Newport.

The train service is back to normal but trains when passing over the section of track which was flooded have been restricted to 10 m.p.h.

As it is the only way the water can get away it is still seeping through the track and flood openings have been made under the track to enable the water to get away more speedily.

Foundation work has commenced for a 3-span bridge beside the present Newport-Altona line near Seaholme. The line will be relocated to pass over a proposed Board of Works drain that will lessen the risk of flooding in the area.

But the completion of this bridge depends on loan money available from Government.

Once again residents were unable to use the main roadway into the town—Millers Rd. The road was closed from midday Saturday, to early Monday morning. Water flowed to a depth of two feet over the road.

Standing next to the flooded road was the new bridge, high and dry—maybe it will be in use before the next rains.

Water also covered the Explosives Road making it impassable to traffic.

Victims of the flash flood last January anxiously watched the rising waters in the swamp and Kororoit Creek on Saturday.

Luckily the volume of water was less than previously and the levee banks held this time.

But in the vicinity of Cambridge Street, Seaholme, residents again saw their gardens inundated with water.

The Board of Works assures us the proposed drain to the sea will be the answer to the problem but the question is WHEN?

EDITORIAL

Woolworths

The traders of the Circle Community Shopping Centre have agreed and notified the Altona Shire Council that they will welcome Woolworths into their company.

This decision is to be commended on several grounds.

Each of the traders know that to a greater or less extent the chain store would enter into competition with his establishment. They, however, collectively took the long view, that they would have some share in the increasing business that would eventuate.

Again, the shopkeepers showed a faith in themselves and their wares. They are satisfied that their goods, service and prices were such that they could at least match those of the newcomer.

For Altona and the purchasing public the advent of Woolworths is all to the good. Any step in the direction of making Altona East shopping centre more self-sufficient is welcome. The same of course applies to Altona North and Altona. The day will come (perhaps now is) when local residents can have all their needs supplied at economic prices by local shopkeepers.

The Circle Community Traders have proved themselves Altona-minded.

In the long run Altona consumers will better themselves by supporting and building up of local shopkeepers.

A prosperous shopping centre improves Altona.

MR. FOOTBALL TO LIVE IN ALTONA

Ted Whitten, Captain - coach of Footscray, is soon to be a resident of the Shire of Altona. Ted has just purchased a home in Altona East at No. 9 The Broadway.

At the conclusion of the Junior match on Sunday between Central Altona and Altona, Ted will make a presentation to the best Central Altona player on the day. This match, which promises to be the match of the season, together with the appearance of such a well known sportsman, should draw a record crowd of spectators.

FOOD PREMISES UNREGISTERED

The health inspector (Mr. J. Mellors) reported to the Altona Shire Council that a mixed business is being carried on in premises which do not comply with Food Premises Regulations.

The shop in Ross Road has been used as food premises for approximately six weeks without being registered.

An order has been sent to the proprietors informing them of requirements to bring the premises into compliance with Regulations.

Mr. Mellors has also notified them it is unlawful to use the premises without being registered.

PRIVATE STREET SCHEMES

Notices for a proposed private street scheme for McIntosh Road, Windsor Crescent to Mills Street, will be served on residents of the area.

The estimated cost per chargeable foot is £6/2/- for full street construction.

The cost of extra thickening and widening of the pavement would be borne by the Altona Shire Council.

Finance is available for the work which is chargeable to land owners.

*****

Altona council has adopted the proposed private street scheme for Collins, Park, Marion, Hearn, Mitchell, Cleg-horn Streets—partial works.

Two objections were received but council decided to serve Second Schedules on the objectors.

*****

Approval by the Altona council has been given to an application by householders in Mills Street, between Marion and Hearn Streets for completion of the footpath to connect with Blackshaws Rd.

This section of Mills Street is government road.

The cost of the footpath will be approximately £400 to the council and about £400 to be shared by the 19 householders.

NEW SERVICE STATION

A plan for a proposed service station fronting Maidstone Street, near Harrington Street, has been approved by the Altona Shire Council.

In order that shoppers can obtain ready access to the service station from Harrington Square, the applicants, Mobil Oil Ltd., are prepared to provide an entrance near the western end of the parking area and to construct a roadway therefrom direct to Harrington Street.

21st BIRTHDAY

Friends and relatives were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Vic Marsh, of Railway Street, Altona, at the Central Hotel last Saturday night.

The party was to celebrate the 21st birthday of their daughter, Dawn.

Everybody had an enjoyable evening but none so much as the men folk who thought the highlight of the evening was the strip tease—naturally.

No. 1 tennis team won 6-5, 6-3.

"LOCKED" IN

For a period after the rain last weekend, residents did not have very much choice on how to get in or out of Altona.

The railway line was impassable and the only road open was Maidstone Street. But to make matters worse Maidstone Street had been partly excavated in readiness for reconstruction and in parts was only a single car width wide.

One could have left by the sea, if any boats were left after the serious pounding they received during the storm.

Or perhaps the helicopter which hovered around the area on Sunday may have landed and given residents a lift.

One wonders how much longer these conditions will exist after heavy rains.

WERRIBEE GOLF NOTES

Saturday's stroke event for the W. J. O'Brien trophy was postponed to a later date.

Tuesday's Associates Medal Day was a draw between Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Shanahan and will be replayed.

The Men's Open Championship is to be held on Sunday.

SCOUT DANCE

The next Scout Dance is to be held on Saturday, August 3, in the Scout Hall, Civic Parade, Altona.

Austin Malloy and Alby Clarke went to the final and will represent the West Group of the Victorian Indoor Bowls Singles Championship which will be played off at Huntingdale on Saturday, July 27.

All members who were at the club rooms to watch the champs will agree that they saw wonderful bowls played. Well done Alby and Austin and special mention to Pat who was the only lady to reach the semi-finals in the West Group.

EXTRACT FROM ALTONA PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

HEAD TEACHER'S MESSAGE

This year, as in past years, our school is endeavouring to put into practice some of the progressive teaching methods that have been developed with success in other countries. The teachers engaged in the "individual differences" approach are very satisfied with the results to date. Pupils appreciate working within a scheme that is geared to suit varying abilities. An important "side-issue" has also been noted. Children are developing a spirit of independence—they are thinking for themselves and relying on their own efforts.

We have recently introduced a new approach to the teaching of written expression. The school has purchased, for £42 (from text-book levy), an "S.R.A. Organising and Reporting Skills." We feel sure that this laboratory will prove most valuable. It also caters for the progress of the individual pupil, rather than the grade as a whole. The laboratory was constructed for use in United States schools, so, before it could be used in our school, the booklet had to be re-written to give the stories an Australian background. This task was carried out by Mrs. Allen, one of our "School Aides," assisted by Mr. Allen. Mr. Joyce, a staff member, duplicated and collated the material. This is really a "first" Australian edition and we are justifiably proud of the project and hopeful that the results will prepare our pupils to deal confidently with work at their secondary schools where the ability to read, analyse, draw conclusions and write concisely is an essential for success.

The school has been pleased to welcome a number of visitors this year. In March, 18 Bachelor of Education students visited our school to observe modern developments

NEW CLASSROOM FOR SEAHOLME

Work commenced at Seaholme Primary School last Friday on the erection of a temporary classroom.

Unfortunately heavy rain hindered the workman and the room was not completed until Wednesday, July 17.

This addition has helped greatly Seaholme's acute accommodation problem.

Several classes are still far too large, but the senior school has at last been able to adjust to manageable numbers.

A new teacher to the school, Miss Sandra Korf, is in charge of Grade V. in this new building.

TALK ON ABORIGINES

Last week, Australian Aborigines Week, Mr. E. Bertram spoke to the children from Grades 3 to 6 at the Altona Primary School about the life of Aboriginal children on a mission station near Perth, Western Australia.

His talk was accompanied by coloured slides, and brought home vividly the difficulties facing these children.

The staff were very grateful to Mr. Bertram for the time he gave to enable all the children to get a better understanding of this matter of national concern.

ALTONA PRIMARY SCHOOL FOOTBALL

NEWPORT HOLDS TOP POSITION

In slushy conditions at Newport on Saturday, the home side's strength and stability under pressure enabled them to snatch a narrow two point victory over Werribee South in shocking conditions.

Newport v. Werribee South
1st Quarter	4 4 28	1 2 8
2nd Quarter	4 4 28	3 8 26
3rd Quarter	4 6 30	3 9 27
FINAL	5 7 37	4 11 35

Newport were first to score through the agency of Ron Sievwright, but a quick reply from Tom Stoios gave the impression that the game was going to be remarkably open considering the conditions.

However, the rot set in and the game became a scramble. Newport still managed to score occasionally and at quarter time had amassed a creditable four goals for the quarter. Kevin Ackerly was dominating the roving division and was having a great tussle with their South counterparts, Tom and Nick Stoios.

The second quarter followed a similar pattern as the first, but this time it was South's turn to do all the attacking.

Tom Jenkins was proving a hard man for the visitors to counter but whatever he sent forward was easily repelled by South's defence, led by Robert Dove.

Even though the ground was woeful, South were pulling down some beautiful overhead marks and the one by Andrew Gouloupoulos at centre-half forward in this term was a gem.

The ball did not come past South's half-backs for the full quarter and they went for the break two points down.

After half-time the players of both sides appeared to be feeling the conditions and a goalless quarter resulted.

Because of this, South appeared to have an undeniable chance as they had the use of the breeze in the last term.

Newport lost a lot of drive in this quarter when damaging rover Kevin Ackerly was vigorously flattened by South's controversial Bert Oldfield.

However, when Oldfield goaled with five minutes to go it looked as though South had clinched it, but then from an awkward pick-up and a similarly awkward kick, Tom Jenkins goaled and Newport regained the lead in the dying minutes to win by two points.

Best.—Newport: Jenkins, Martyn, Sievwright, Mayne, J. Evans. South: Oldfield, Miller, R. Dove, Dent, T. Stoios.

Goals.—Newport: Ackerly, 1, Jenkins 1, Johnston 1, Sievwright 1, Evans 1. South: T. Stoios 1, Dent 1, Oldfield 1, Munyard 1.

FARM DISAPPOINTING

Every competition has its upsets and Saturday's game between Farm and Rovers almost provided the shock of the season in this League when home side Farm only defeated Rovers by 12 points.

Metro. Farm v. Rovers
1st Qr.	2 6 18	0 1 1
2nd Qr.	2 9 21	1 3 9
3rd Qr.	5 10 40	3 3 21
FINAL	5 10 40	4 4 28

Apart from a few "triers," Farm had a bad day in the waterlogged conditions and missed the opportunity of gaining a much needed "lift" in percentage.

Johnny Martin again turned in a performance that we know he can produce and it was his constructive play that kept Farm in the lead.

Rovers should be well satisfied with their performance as running a side like Farm to such a close margin is very commendable indeed.

They possess a good ruck and a speedy wingman in George Chamings and should give their small brigade of followers a run for their money before the season has concluded.

Best.—Metro. Farm: John Martin 2, Hart 1, Steinberg 1, Pengelly 1. Rovers: Sheriff, Chamings, Dingey, Moore, Blair.

Goals.—Metro. Farm: John Martin 2, Hart 1, Steinberg 1, Pengelly 1. Rovers: Moore 2, Matthews 1, Dingey 1.

I.N.F. WIN WELL

In heavy conditons at Chirnside Park on Saturday, title-holders I.N.F. scored a decisive win over Central Altona.

I.N.F. v. Centrals

3rd Qr.	10 9 69	3 4 22
FINAL	13 11 89	3 4 22

With the return to form of Peter O'Toole and Frank Melican, I.N.F. had a decided advantage in the following division.

This gave their attack many opportunities and they capitalised on them as best they could. In using this expression it must be noted that Centrals versatile Len Marr turned in a dashing display in defence and left no doubt to his all-round ability.

John Murrell also played well in defence and, although slightly shaded on the day by Sam Pante, he still gave good service to his side.

Best.—I.N.F.: M. Miller, B. Smith, O'Toole, Pante, Melican. Centrals: J. Murrell, L. Marr, Wallace, Trevean, Tavilla.

Goals.—I.N.F.: Townsling 6, Pante 3, M. Miller 1, Riley 1, O'Toole 1, Selwyn 1. Central: Marr 2, Trevean 1.

CYMS TOO STRONG

In a game played under appalling conditions and vital to both sides, Town C.Y.M.S. had far too much purpose and surety for the timid Werribee and gave them a football lesson at Dugman Reserve.

C.Y.M.S. v. Werribee
1st Qr.	5 2 32	0 1 1
2nd Qr.	10 10 70	0 1 1
3rd Qr.	13 11 89	1 2 8
FINAL	16 16 112	2 3 15

Early in the first term, the smaller Werribee attacked constantly and looked as if they could trouble the taller Town side.

But the ragged Werribee defence provided no barrier for Town and they slammed on goal after goal. Steve Rieger, marking brilliantly in the wet, was controlling the ruck for the locals and with team mate Bruce Moulton the master in the packs, the home side was able to brush aside the faint-hearted Werribee and all Town's forwards were able to figure in goals.

Although Werribee's performance should be quickly forgotten, the Smith brothers, Don and John, did not give up fighting and gained many kicks in a vain effort to set the example to the team.

With captain Gavin Sheahan and George Martini showing more purpose, Werribee fought Williamstown for the opportunities and started to press the Williamstown defence for the first time in the match.

Best.—C.Y.M.S.: Beani, S. Rieger, Wheatley, Gulliver, Dooley. Werribee: J. Smith, D. Smith, F. Keogh, M. Sheahan, Martini.

Goals.—Central Altona: C. Peatling, Johnston, Hill, Coulston, Williams. I.N.F.: Flynn, Toffolon, J. Reidy, Maher, Bell.

Goals.—Central Altona: M. Hill 10, Crawford 8, Johnston 4, Peatling 3, Szatkowski 2, Coulston 2, Tarca 1.

Goals.—C.Y.M.S.: Dudine 3, Sinclair 3, Rieger 3, Vaughan 2, P. Zamykal 2, Dooley 1, Ambrosy 1. Werribee: Martini 1 and J. Smith 1.

EASY WIN FOR ALTONA

Because of the conditions of the Laverton v. Altona game between Laverton and Altona, and Altona had a comfortable victory.

Laverton v. Altona
1st Qr.	1 1 7	3 3 21
2nd Qr.	2 2 14	10 7 67
3rd Qr.	3 2 20	12 13 85
FINAL	3 3 21	20 16 136

With the "home ground advantage" Altona soon established a lead and maintained their superiority throughout the game to coast home easy winners.

Considering the conditions of the ground, Laverton should be commended on the effort of keeping the Altona boys on their toes when the latter are sure that they have a pennant side in their midst.

Laverton did not let up all day and they should do well in the next few games when they have some easier games to play. Of Altona, all that can be said is that they had too much talent for the Laverton side who found it hard to cover key players such as G. Ewen and Alan Bartolo.

Best.—Altona: Bartolo, P. McLean, Schwabe, Ewen, G. Cummin. Laverton: Hamilton, Rigney, Pyne, Toohey, Hartnup.

CENTRALS TROUNCE I.N.F.

At Gray Reserve on Sunday, Central Altona trounced I.N.F. in a classic display of power football.

Centrals v. I.N.F.
1st Qr.	3 6 24	0 1 1
2nd Qr.	12 16 88	0 1 1
3rd Qr.	18 25 121	0 2 2
FINAL	30 29 209	0 2 2

With teamwork and hard hitting in packs Centrals soon established a good lead and were never troubled by their lighter, less experienced opponents.

Continuing their spree of recent weeks, Central forwards had a great day. Leading goalkicker Crawford bagged eight, whilst centre-half forward Mick Hill notched 10.

I.N.F. offered little resistance. Ron Reidy played his usual steady game, but could not send his side into attack because of the cleverness of the Central rovers.

Best.—Central Altona: C. Peatling, Johnston, Hill, Coulston, Williams. I.N.F.: Flynn, Toffolon, J. Reidy, Maher, Bell.

NEWPORT THRASHED

Werribee South proved too strong and experienced for their younger Newport opponents to run off easy winners on rain-soaked Chirnside Park on Sunday.

The first half saw South little men led by Bill Edwards cut the Newport defence ribbons with the result that South had 13 goals to nil the board at half-time.

The margin would have been more but for the strong play of Bob Kite and Kevin Lyn for Newport. Andy Stewart was a driving force for Newport but found that most of his attacks were returned by South's defence. Robert Brown and Ian McNaughton.

After the interval South went on with the job and with Rick Cannell starring at half forward flank, they built a lead to 20 goals at three-quarter time. The last term South ease off and Newport got their first score for a match through the genius of South's ruck-rover George Gouloupoulos when he kicked the ball off the ground for a point to the opposition.

Altona win by 25 gls.

On rain-soaked Grant Reserve on Saturday the powerful Altona "killed" Laverton in a dazzling display of wet-weather football.

Altona v. Laverton
--------------------

MOTOR VEHICLE STORAGE IN L'TON

The Werribee Shire Council will raise no objection to the storage of motor vehicles on land at the corner of Crellin Ave. and Geelong Road, Laverton.

The council has added a proviso that as soon as a water supply is available the owner must plant trees on the highway for beautification purposes.

ELDERLY CITIZENS FOR WERRIBEE

To foster the formation of an Elderly Citizens' Club in Werribee a committee was formed at a meeting of residents on June 24.

The committee decided to make two requests of the Werribee Shire Council. Firstly to ask the council to provide suitable accommodation for the club. Secondly, as a suitable site for club rooms could the council acquire land in Gladstone Place.

The council will inform the committee of developments as they happen.

LAVERTON LAY CATECHISTS INSTRUCTED THIS CLASS

This first Communion group is an example of the work being done in the Archdiocese by its lay catechists.

The 21 girls and boys in the group were prepared for their First Communion by lay catechists at Laverton R.A.A.F. Base.

Catechism classes were started at Laverton last July by Father B. A. McCormack when he was Chaplain at the Base.

Father McCormack and 11 men and women from Laverton trained as Catechists at St. Augustine's School, Yarraville. Among them are civilians, servicemen, and members of their families.

The need for religious instruction classes became acute when development of the area by the Housing Commission brought many young Catholic families to the settlement.

Seventy children now attend religious instruction each Sunday at the Queen of Peace Church-School, Laverton.

They are divided by age, and standard into eight classes each bearing the name of an Apostle.

Since Father McCormack left for Malaya responsibility for the religious instruction class was taken up by Father J. A. Nooney, P.P., of St. Mary's, Altona, who gave these children their First Holy Communion on June 9.

The children who are seen in our picture with Father Nooney, are—

FRONT: Janet Waterworth, Marcella Fleming, Rita Cassar, Lynn Ellis, Therese Curry and Jill Gordon.

LAVERTON POLICE STATION SOON

Mr. G. R. Crick, M.L.A. forwarded to the Werribee Shire Council the reply he received from the Acting Chief Secretary relative to the proposed police station at Laverton.

The Laverton branch of the Australian Labor Party has also received a letter giving the same information.

Both these letters confirm the information given by Cr. Comben at the Laverton Progress Association meeting, a report of which was published in the "Star" last week. They both state the police station has been listed for erection in the financial year 1963-64.

LAVERTON GIRL GUIDE NEWS

Several parents were present to see their girls enrolled in the Guides last weekend.

Those enrolled were Lesley Taylor, Terese Curry, Sylvia Thompson and Kaye Clark.

New recruits welcomed into the company were Kaylene Forrest, Gay Webster and Sheryl Brosnan.

Proficiency badges were awarded to Pat Brimble, cook's badge; Jill Sewell, badges for thrift and laundress; Joyce Robertson, badges for laundress and cook.

Brown Owl and Brownies of both packs were present to see their two Pack leaders receive their Pack Leader Stripes. They were all very proud of their leaders, Pat Brimble and Jill Sewell.

W' Council Wants Land — Why?

Werribee Shire councillors did not readily agree to the proposed purchase of land in Market Road, Werribee. Central Riding councillors were eager for the council to commence negotiations for the purchase of the land but other councillors were not sure of the motive behind the proposal.

It was mentioned that the land could be used for a new municipal yard which is needed by the engineer's department. The engineer had stated he needed half an acre of land to store machinery and other materials (half of this area to be roofed).

The shire president (Cr. N. J. Smith) thought they needed at least 1½ acres. The area of the land in question is approximately 3½ acres and the price £6250.

Rather than pay this amount of money for the land Cr. McNaughton suggested leasing land for the municipal yard. As an alternative suggestion he proposed demolishing the old A.R.P. building at the back of the shire offices and roofing over an area of this yard. As the shire engineer is in charge of the yard this latter suggestion would have the added advantage of keeping the yard close to the shire engineer's office for his supervision.

Cr. Hudson did not agree with this proposal as he said the shire offices building must be extended and they do not know how far back the offices will go. Also, probably very soon, car parking facilities will be needed. He said they must find additional space or they will be in trouble again later on. He said it seems sensible to buy this land now.

Cr. Earle pointed out the existing buildings on the Market Street land were useless to the council and asked what is the value of the land. He suggested the cost was too dear for a municipal yard.

Cr. Smith replied it was the time to buy the land, the council could not lose by purchasing it as the land will not go back in value.

It was then suggested the land was not suitable for a municipal yard. Other land the council already owned was considered to be more suitable for the purpose.

Cr. Powell agreed to Cr. McNaughton's suggestion of roofing in the yard at the rear of the offices for the machinery and said no doubt the council could find a storage for other materials. But he said he had always wanted the council to purchase this land. Cr. Powell went on to say the owner of the Market Road land wanted to know now if the council wished to purchase the land with a view to making it, in the future, an entrance to parkland. If the council is not interested in the land he will consider sub-dividing and selling it.

Cr. Barber is of the opinion that the yard at the back of the offices is not as it should be but is convinced it is desirable to proceed with negotiations for the purchase of the land with the view of providing parklands in the future.

Cr. Davis then moved a motion that the central riding councillors on their own behalf, negotiate for the purchase of the land in Market

Road in the interest of the Central Riding.

Cr. Barber seconded the motion.

Cr. Earle asked why are the Central Riding councillors so anxious to purchase the land when the rest of the councillors are against it. He said, "What's behind it?"

Cr. Jones suggested it was not in the best interests of ratepayers to allow the Central Riding councillors to spend £6250.

This brought some sharp words from Cr. Smith who said he was fed up with councillors from other ridings wanting to govern the Central Riding. He said Central Riding councillors do not interfere with the other Ridings.

Cr. Richmond could not see how councillors could object to the Central Riding spending the money out of their own funds.

Cr. Earle said the land is supposed to be for a municipal yard which concerns the whole shire. He considered £6250 too dear for land for this use and if it was wanted for parkland the council could acquire cheaper land further down the river.

Cr. Davis said his motion merely covered the purchase of the land but did not cover using the land as a municipal yard.

Cr. McNaughton said ratepayers are not slow in telling councillors they are responsible to all ratepayers in the Shire of Werribee. He said he has a responsibility to all ratepayers and must be able to make a decision on the spending of £6250. The land will definitely appreciate but can this money be spent when residents still need relief from bad roads, &c., said Cr. McNaughton.

Cr. Smith asked were the Central Riding councillors to be allowed to go ahead with negotiations.

The motion by Cr. Davis was again repeated.

On the understanding that the land is not for use as a municipal yard and the motion names no specific use for the land, Cr. Earle said he would support the motion.

The motion was then carried.

Cr. Davis then moved another motion that the Shire engineer (Mr. McCormack) seek quotes for the cost of roofing in the yard at the back of the municipal offices.

Mr. McCormack said he would like to demolish the old A.R.P. shed as he considered it a bad fire risk. He considered a roof at least 60' by 100' necessary to cover the machinery.

Councillors agreed to the proposal and Mr. McCormack will seek quotes for the roof.

Altona Baptist Church

Steps leading to the origin of the Baptist Church in Altona took place nearly 50 years ago. A Sunday school commenced in 1915. The first church service was held in 1917, but was not until March, 1928, that the church was constituted a member of the Victorian Baptist Union.

In 1914 Mr. Fleming and family moved from Footscray into Altona. The move had been made because the mother was concerned over the health of one of her children.

Mr. Fleming was equally concerned over the education and spiritual needs of his family. On being informed that a teacher would only be supplied by the Education Department if a school hall was available he built a school room.

Then he approached a workmate, Mr. Loft of the Newport Baptist Church, to open a Sunday school in the school room.

The Sunday school was opened in February, 1915. There were only his own four children present. Others soon came and the school carried on in the room until the Progress Hall was opened. The Progress Hall in Blyth Street was the result of one of the first Altona community efforts. A hall for social functions had become necessary. It was largely built by voluntary subscriptions and working bees in the year 1917. Much of the timber came from an older structure in Sargood Street.

In this hall Sunday school services, followed by brief church services, were conducted by Mr. Loft, who now was assisted by three other teachers.

The Spencer family, early worshippers in the hall, offered to donate land for the erection of a church. The Baptist Union had an old church available at Tyldon and in 1922 it was placed on the land where the Sunday school now stands. For some years the church was carried on in this hall. Preachers were supplied from Newport and the Baptist Union, but the Baptist administration had not been set up. However, in March, 1928, the church was admitted to the Baptist Union. Mr. Fiddian became the first secretary, a position he held for 14 years.

In but a few years the church hall was found too small for the needs of its worshippers. In 1931 the Progress Hall was purchased. This, with substantial alterations, is the present church. It originally faced Blyth St. In 1946 it was moved to its present position in Sargood Street, to make the vacated area available for a manse, and a new church when required. The manse was completed in 1946-7. The present Sunday school was built in 1959 at a cost of £4000. This gives all the facilities necessary for graded school and week night activities. Regrettably the old church was now dismantled. Up to 1961 the church was a home mission station subsidised by the Baptist Union. But in that year it had become sufficiently self-supporting to be granted independent status.

At present a small addition for school purposes is being made to the church building which will also be completely renovated and re-decorated.

For many years, the only church in Altona, the Baptist church had a marked effect on the community life of the district. Many worthwhile Altona organisations commenced under its auspices. The Guide movement, the Boy Scouts and the hockey club were such. Its first children's play centre in 1945 was the forerunner of Altona's present kindergartens. Amongst its members were some of those who assisted in founding the hospital. Throughout the church's life it has been served by ordained resident pastors or student pastors. Until recently the only resident minister in Altona was the Baptist Pastor.

A branch Sunday school was in operation west of Maidstone Street in the '30's. Mr. Bert Roberts had up to 40 children in attendance. Unfortunately it lapsed during the world war.

The church has kept to its mission. It has preached the Gospel. It has sent forth workers. One of Mr. Fleming's sons is the well-known leader of the mission to the Aborigines at Yuendumu. The Rev. Graham Watkins of Western Australia, also came from the Altona church.

Rev. R. J. Reynolds, the present minister, has held the pastorate for three years. The secretary is Mr. T. W. James, and the treasurer Mr. R. Martin, who is also Sunday school superintendent. The management of the church is in the hands of deacons elected by the members.

There is a virile membership. A strong, but not undue emphasis is placed on youth work. There is a graded Sunday school from kindergarten to Bible class with 20 teachers.

Girls Life Brigade, Life Boys and Boys Brigade provide for fellowship needs of the young and for cultural and physical activities. Teams compete in cricket and basketball in district church competition. Christian Endeavour societies, junior intermediate and senior promote the ideals of Christian citizenship. Ladies are served by Guild and also by ladies evening fellowship for young marrieds. Mens society finds support from the men of the church. More importantly prayer services are well attended now as in the past.

Recently to meet the requirements of the community, it became necessary to restart the childrens play centre. Under the leadership of Miss McGowan, 40 children of pre-school age from all denominations are catered for daily. There is a charge at this centre, which is self-supporting, but the existence of a waiting list indicates it is filling a need.

No use has yet been made of the land alongside the manse in Blyth Street—the site for a future church.

No possibility of church extension work has yet become apparent. For the present the church is largely concentrating its efforts among the young. First by providing for essential worship and Christian education. Secondly by supplying opportunities for week night activities for young people to suit all tastes and temperaments. Thirdly by means of private car transport bringing in children from outlying areas such as west of Maidstone Street and the Migrant Hostel.

In the building of the Altona Baptist Church many names stand out. They include Mr. Fleming snr., who gave the church an inspiration it never entirely lost, even in the difficult days, and Mr. Harrington, the first life deacon the local church has elected. Mr. Loft, who in his long service with the Sunday school over a long period, missed but two sessions—both because of floods, with his horse and jinker over the rough roads or walking the streets asking people to come to church was a man with a mission. Mr. Fiddian and Mr. Murdoch secretaries for many years, and Mr. Uren, the choir master, will not be forgotten. Many others could be listed, the pastors, student pastors and lay preachers—the deacons, the teachers and the worshippers over many years.

These, under the Divine Presence, have enabled the church to be what it is today. Of each of them can be afforded no greater honour than "He (or she) has done what he could."

And so a church was born, and so a church grew and so a church in the provision of God lives on.

FINED FOR INDECENT LANGUAGE AND ASSAULT

In the Williamstown Court of Petty Sessions Neil Francis Beckett, of Rose Street, Altona, was fined £10 in default 14 days for indecent language, and £25 in default one month for assault. John Francis Patrick Morton, of Railway Place, Altona, was fined £5 in default seven days for indecent language and £20 in default one month for unlawful assault. Rodney Smith, of Rayner Street, Altona, was fined £5 in default seven days for indecent language, £20 in default one month for assault, and £5 in default seven days for using threatening words.

They all pleaded guilty to the indecent language but not guilty to the other charges.

Constable Keegan of Altona said at 12.30 a.m. on Sunday, June 30, he was driving past a group of youths outside an expresso bar in Altona when he heard the words "mug copper" called out. He turned his car and some youths got into a car and drove away.

He saw three youths talking to girls and he said to Morton, "Did you call out." Morton denied it and used an indecent expression. He seized Morton by the arm and was pushed away and punched. Beckett pulled him away and Smith told Morton to run away. Morton did so, but fell and Const. Keegan caught him after 25 yards and handcuffed his left arm. Beckett shook Const. Keegan about six times and said, "You're not taking him anywhere." Smith had hold of Morton's right arm, dragging him along. Const. Keegan attempted to draw his baton but had his overcoat on and could not do so. Smith ran in and punched him on the left shoulder and Const. Keegan pushed one youth into the other and then managed to get his baton out.

He struck Smith with the baton and kept the other youths out of the way by swinging it. The other youths told Morton to try to get away but he said "I'll go with him now." Smith said, "You think you're smart and I'll kill you if you come down here again."

Senior Const. Sydney Emerson said he asked Morton why he attacked the Constable and he replied, "I had to put up a bit of a show in front of my mates."

Beckett told him he had been to a party at Yarraville and always seemed to get into trouble when he had been drinking. Smith's explanation was, "I had to give my mates a hand." Asked about making a lot of silly threats Smith answered, "That was the grog talking, I'm sorry now."

Beckett was the only defendant to enter the witness box and he said he went over to Morton and the constable and told Morton to stop, he did not strike anyone. He alleged he was assaulted at the lockup. Beckett admitted prior convictions for larceny, assault on police and insulting words.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor, S.M., refused them time to pay.

GIRL GUIDES REQUEST ASSISTANCE

Laverton Girl Guides Association informed the Werribee Shire Council that the Guide Hall has now been placed in position on railway land in Laverton.

They have now requested the council for assistance. The matter was referred to East Riding councillors for them to confer with the association to ascertain the assistance required.

ROAD SAFETY STARTS WITH YOU

Pedestrians cause many road accidents. Look both ways before crossing the road, and where there is no footpath walk ON THE RIGHT. Watch your step and live. — Australian Road Safety Council.

Drove Car Carelessly

James McDonald, cleaner, of the Migrant Hostel, Williamstown, was charged that on January 13, he did drive a vehicle in Douglas Parade carelessly. He pleaded not guilty.

Adolph Virent, taxi driver, of Sycamore Street, Caulfield, said at 1.45 a.m. on January 13 he was travelling south in his taxi in Douglas Parade, Newport. He stopped at North Road then continued across and saw a car coming straight at him in the opposite direction. He had two passengers aboard. He got as close to the kerb as possible and put the car in second gear, but the car hit him on the offside rear door. The other car careered on though a fence and up on a lawn of a house.

Constable R. Towers said he attended the accident at 2 a.m. and saw a Morris Oxford up against the wall. He asked the defendant how it happened, he just kept repeating, "I was going home." The other driver told him he pulled to the left and was nearly stationary when the car hit him. There was a bend in the road further back the defendant had come around. The defendant was very excitable and had a knock on the head which could account for him not saying anything else.

McDonald said in the witness box he did not know his way around Williamstown very well at that time and lost his way. He realised he was on the wrong road after coming round the bend and was dazzled by the lights of a taxi behind the taxi which made a left hand turn. His suspicion was broken in the accident and he veered across the road.

He was fined £10 with £1/4/- costs.

Mr. Simmons said before the next council meeting he would contact the Werribee Shire Engineer (Mr. McCormack) who has previously fully investigated this problem and report Mr. McCormack's comments back to council.

AUSTRALIA DAY

The Australia Day Committee is now planning for its 1964 celebrations. Co-operation, interest and suggestions from more organisations will be welcomed.

Only a few such bodies have so far shown an interest. This is a pity. As it has already been said Altona in its geographic situation and comparative isolation has an opportunity to develop a unique form of celebration which will be worthy of our community and show the way to others.

Whatever the plans for the day (the preliminary ideas as published seem worthwhile), the central purpose must not be lost sight of. Through this day and its successors over the years the building up of an Australia Day tradition must be sought.

In this the interest of our youth organisations is not only essential. It is most desirable. It is on youth we must rely to make the day less of a general holiday and more of a celebration of a nation's birthday.

Now is the time to seek the co-operation of the schools. It is unfortunate that while we continue to celebrate Australia Day on or near January 26, schools will be always on vacation.

However, a limited participation by scholars in the essential part of the ceremonies is possible. Providing that is, that steps to that end be discussed now.

Consideration could also be given to project work, essay or other competitions on the meaning of Australia Day. Suitable incentives may be necessary.

ALTONA NORTH WATER MAINS LARGE DEVELOPMENT

Completion of the mains in Misten Avenue and Rosala Avenue, Altona North is in sight.

Notification has been received, that they have been approved for construction, subject to a revenue guarantee from council in respect to Rosala Avenue. Parts of Blackshaws and Chambers Roads are included. Certain details are required from Altona Council re street levels &c. If everything is in order it could be possible to lay the mains by Christmas. However, this is by no means certain.

Water reticulation has been approved as follows—
Cedula and Paringa Roads, 30 chains;
McIntosh Road and First Avenue, 23 chains;

Third Avenue, 9½ chains;
Hatherly Grove, 9½ chains;
Fifth Avenue, 10½ chains;
Ronald Avenue, 3½ chains.
The last three being subject to additional houses being commenced on the line of the proposed main.

OFFENSIVE TRADE IN BROOKLYN

An unregistered offensive trade, namely a sanitary contractors yard, is operating in Boundary Road, Brooklyn.

Mr. R. K. Andrew, health inspector for Werribee Shire, reported the matter to the council at their last meeting.

The yard is used for pan storage and vehicles used for carrying night soil are kept there.

Messages and letters to the proprietor, Mr. E. N. Christy, have brought no result and he continues to operate although unregistered.

The health inspector recommended a final warning be issued to Mr. Christy.

Cr. Davis moved that a final warning be issued but stated in view of the fact the business is not registered he considered him very lucky to get a final warning. If there is no result from this warning he suggested council take immediate action against the proprietor.
